

Attention all Undergraduate Education Majors!

- Are you interested in hands on experiences with the department?
- Are you committed and dedicated to improving education?
- Would you like to learn more about your major and all the opportunities it has to offer?

Then we are looking for you!

Apply to be an Undergraduate Professional Development Schools Student Representative!

You will

- Grow as a person, teacher candidate and professional.
- Meet professors, department faculty, principals, and administrators at monthly meetings.
- Take leadership and become a guide to other students in the department.
- Have the opportunity to attend and present research at a national conference.

If any of these interest you, take your teacher education program one step further by applying.

Deadline: Sunday, May 1st

Application can be found at our website
(pds.buffalostate.edu) under "teacher candidates".

Drop off: Bacon 320-B
